

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

Loving God, we give thanks for the saving death and resurrection of Jesus, and we ask you to be close to us just now.

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits you have given me, for all the pains and insults you have borne for me. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may I know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.

This week's readings

Acts 3.12-19 Psalm 4 | John 3.1-7 Luke 24.36b-48

Prayer of the week.

Risen Christ, you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope: strengthen us to proclaim your risen life and fill us with your peace, to the glory of God the Father.

Prayer after Communion

Living God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in all his redeeming work; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

This week sees/saw the funeral of HRH Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh take place, a person of great influence and impact on the world over the last century. So with this in mind, I wanted to share some of his most poignant words:

"It's a big mistake to think about yourself. No one is interested in you in the long run. Don't court popularity. It doesn't last. Remember that the attention comes because of the position you are privileged to hold, not because of who you are. If you think it's all about you, you'll never be happy.'

'My grandfather was assassinated,' he reminded me, 'my father was sent into exile, my parents separated, my sister was killed in that aeroplane crash [in 1937], my uncle was murdered by the IRA . . . things happen, but life goes on.'

'There'll be ups and there'll be downs, but beyond that I've no idea what the future holds. There's no point in speculating about it. All I'll say is that I've tried to help keep it going while I've been here.'

Prince Philip was also a front runner in leading the way to support young people and this could be seen through the 'Duke of Edinburgh' award scheme.

If you would like to make a written contribution in the online book of remembrance, please do it through the Church of England or ask a friend to help if you don't have internet.

And, of course, prayers for the royal family (and indeed for all who are in mourning), are still just as powerful, therefore the Church of England's prayer is:

God of our lives,
we give thanks for the life of Prince Philip,
for the love he shared among us,
and for his devotion to duty.
We entrust him now to your love and mercy,
through our Redeemer Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Merciful God, be close to all who mourn,
especially The Queen and all members of the Royal Family.
May they know the hope of your promises
and the comfort of your love,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

May Christ our Lord give us peace.
Amen.

Reverend Sarah Marshall
